

Worlds of Fun

LOOK, TAKE A LOOK.

Feast your eyes on Worlds of Fun in 1980. It's 157 acres of great times for the whole family, with over 95 rides, shows and attractions.

You'll see some of the best choreography this side of Broadway. Lavish shows featuring original music, costuming and staging. Entertaining surprises from street bands and puppet shows to big-time stars like Bill Cosby and the Oak Ridge Boys.

Look up, down and around, you'll see some of the most amazing thrill rides in the universe. Look, over there, shops and games of every description and terrific food from all over the world. Beautiful landscapes abound with over 225 varieties of flowers, trees and foliage.

And, don't look now, but this year we've added something that exists nowhere else.

LOOK WHAT WE'VE GOT FOR YOU NOW!

We've got the spectacular Orient Express, the greatest roller coaster ever conceived! It's the state of the art in coaster technology. And you'll have to see it to truly understand it.

The ultimate coaster trip begins with a drop into a 100-foot-long tunnel, then a climb up, up, up to the height of a 12-story building.

From there the only way is down, nearly straight down at a top speed of 65 miles per hour. Then you bank into a steep turn and roll into two gigantic interlocking loops; the highest is 80 feet above the ground.

Just when you think you've had enough, there's more. Next comes a coaster effect that's never been attempted—the Kamikaze Kurve! It may be the longest 13 seconds of your life!

The Orient Express, 3,470 feet of twisted terror. Only at Worlds of Fun.

Don't say we didn't warn you.
